

Welcome to the EAQuine News July 2010

June has been a month of Firsts for EAQ. The first of our Demonstration Days, the first course in Ireland and the first BBC filming too!

We've received the first EAQ cards and are working on better promotional materials for centres this month with new packs being launched at the conference in August.

Eleanor from the BBC watches as Spott makes sure he gets into the picture!

Horsemanship for Facilitators

Steve and Tricia have started working on a new DVD which will be aimed at helping facilitators with their horsemanship and horse handling skills.

Facilitators will be able to be assessed for the skills and gain a nationally recognised qualification.

EAQ Conference
Sunday 29th August
Half Moon Stud,
Motcombe, Dorset
Advance tickets £15

Welcome, Congratulations & Thanks!

William Irwin (2nd left), Member of the Local Assembly came along to support us at the Demo Day in Ireland. Pictured with Lesley, Steve, Tricia & Jenny.

Welcome to Helen from Coventry, Claire from Portsmouth and Alison and Derek from County Kildare. Congratulations to Clare who formally joined the EAQ network. Thanks to Lesley, Dennis and Jenny for making us feel so welcome at their home in Co Armagh.

You can join the Silversand Horsemanship Club at www.silversand.com.au/club

Lesley working on moving the feet so that the 2 right feet are on one side of the log and 2 left feet are on the other.

Alison after she really understood what this sort of horsemanship is all about!
